JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT

IN THE COURT OF THE MUNSIFF AND FIRST CLASS MAGISTRATE AT DODBALLAPUR.

Order Under Section 144, Criminal Procedure Code.

Whereas the outbreak of violence that has created communal tension in Bangalore between Hindus and Muslims from 12th December 1947 having widely spread in this locality has aroused sensation and anxiety in the minds of both Hindus and Muslims of this town:

Whereas I am fully satisfied of the same that unless preventive precautionary measures are taken for checking the acute sensation in the minds of the public there is a likelihood of breach of public peace, safety and tranquility.

And whereas in this connection it is brought to my notice that some persons of this town were moving about with clubs at odd hours on 13th December 1947 in this Town.

I do hereby order prohibiting the assemblage of five or more persons in a public place for no reasonable cause, and any person from moving about in public streets armed with any weapon like club, sword, dagger or any other instrument which can be used as a weapon of offence within the limits of Dodballapur Town for a period of two months from this 14th day of December 1947.

This is an ex-parte order passed as a matter of emergency.

Given under my hand and the seal of this court this 14th day of December 1947.
